

2005 CLASS SCHEDULE

Happy New Year and warmest wishes from all the staff at Bustle & Bows.

We hope you and your families had a restful and happy holiday period. After a lovely break ourselves, we are looking forward to getting back into stitching again and we are excited about the year ahead.

All our very talented teachers are back with new and inspiring projects to entice and we are pleased to offer you the enclosed selection of classes for each of our stores. Please use the booking form at the back of this booklet to enrol in classes.

We are delighted to announce the launch of the Bustle and Bows website;
'www.bustleandbows.com.au'

The development of our on-line store has been an overwhelming job for us and we hope that the effort that has gone into creating it has made it worth the wait.

We welcome any feedback you may have on the site.

As part of our progression to a website we are developing a format by which we can email future class lists to those who have this facility. With this in mind we are endeavouring to update our mailing list and include your email addresses. In an effort to keep our mailing list current and accurate, we ask that you please take the time to complete the update sheet on the back of this newsletter, detailing your email address and/or any changes to your details and return it to us as soon as possible.

Thank you for your continued patronage.
We look forward to another year of successful stitching.

CLASSES FOR SURREY HILLS

TUTOR ; JAN KERTON

'Repair Bear' Fee $65.00 plus materials 2 sessions

Date; Wednesday August 17th & 31st
Time; 10am to 12.30pm

As seen in Inspirations #30, Repair Bear guards your sewing treasures. Create a work pouch embellished with Jan's special appliqué teddies and other sewing delights; a tomato pincushion, strawberry emery, needle packet, and thread spool. In this class students will learn how to make all the appliqué motifs, work the simple embroidery, and make the zippered pouch with Jan's caring and sharing help.

'Catching Wild Butterflies' Fee $130.00 plus materials 2 sessions

Date; Tuesday October 25th & 26th
Time; 10am to 3.30pm

Jenny McWhinney loves to thread paint and designed this delightful bunny, and Jan Kerton loves raised embroidery and she added the butterflies. This fun 2 day workshop, is a combination of their skills to create a delightful blanket. This is an excellent beginner project for learning to thread paint. Jan will guide you through creation of the precious, blue-coated bunny and share the secrets for achieving beautiful thread painted results. On the second day you will create the raised elements on the project. She will take you step by step through the creation of the fluffy bunny tail, the woven butterfly net and the exquisite raised butterflies. The project is worked on a cream, bassinette size piece of wool cashmere blanketing. The embroidery is worked in Appletons crewel wool, Gumnut yarns and DMC thread. The kit includes wools, threads, needles, silk organza and fusible web, and full step by step instructions and colour image.

'Thimble Flower' Fee $135.00 plus materials 2 sessions

Date; Saturday October 8th & 22nd
Time; 10am to 4 pm

Inspired by a Martha Stewart magazine where I saw a delicate flower arrangement in a thimble. What a wonderful idea for a stitcher who loves to sew flowers! I have created a series of small free standing stumpwork flowers and leaves that can be arranged in thimble pots. Most of the techniques do not use wire and the results are delicate and realistic. Work violets and African violets and rosebuds. This project will be suitable to frame or to sit in a shadow box. A delightful gift!

'Blackberry Brambles' Fee $30.00 per session plus materials

Dates; Wednesdays, March 8th, April 12th, June 7th, July 19th, August 9th,
September 13th, October 11th, November 15th.
Time; 10am to 12.30pm

This blanket has been a long time in creation. Inspired by an antique design, Jan has used wool stumpwork techniques to create a rambling circle of beaded blackberries and delightful flowers raised flowers. This project has been worked as an adult knee rug on beautiful wool cashmere but could also be worked on a piece suitable for framing. This will be a monthly class so that students can work at their own pace and attend as many classes as they require.

'Christmas Gifts' Fee $65.00 plus materials 1 session

Date; Wednesday November 2nd
Time; 10am to 3.30pm

OR Date; Wednesday 16th November
Time; 10am to 3.30pm

OR Date; Wednesday 23rd November
Time; 10am to 3.30pm

OR Date; Wednesday 30th November
Time; 10am to 3.30pm

Jan has designed a series of simple stitched projects suitable for Christmas gifts. Students can book for one class or all the classes.

'Five Little Ducks' Fee; $135.00 plus materials 2 sessions

Dates; Thursdays, April 25th, May 5th, 19th, June 2nd.

Time; 10am to 12.30pm

OR

Time; 1pm to 3.30pm

A traditional design based on the bird and elaborate leaves so often seen in old crewel embroideries. Stitches in the work are simple with an interesting way they are worked together. Your favourite colours are the best colours to use. Make it to your purpose, such as middle or corner of a throw, box lid, seat cover for dining or occasional chair, or large lampshade. A good winter project.

If you have an inspiration in your mind of something you want to embroider, there are many patterns and we can work something out to suit you.

The project is not a must, just a suggestion.

'Bags, Napkins & Christmas Presents'

Dates; Thursdays, July 28th, August 4th, 18th,
September 1st, 15th.

Time; 10am to 12.30pm

OR

Time; 1pm to 3.30pm

Idea 1: Bags here there and everywhere in France, Linen, Cotton with embroideries and quilting - Not small, but bags to take shopping for this and that - Shoppers!

Table napkins were also in the shops with embroidered motifs.

The same embroidery patterns could work for both bag or table napkin.

Idea 2: Christmas Presents. Yes time of the year to start. Everyone just so enjoys the homemade presents. There are so many small embroideries that lend themselves to unusual lovely presents. Make it an 'I made it myself' Christmas.

IT IS ALSO PLANNED THAT DURING THE YEAR WE WILL HAVE A FEW MIDWEEK 'GO TO GAIL' DAYS DOWN AT THE BARN.

SO IF YOU ARE INTERESTED WATCH OUT FOR THE DATES OR ASK ABOUT THEM IN THE SHOP.

TUTOR TRISH KELLY

'Finger Purse - Beaded'

Fee; $60.00 plus materials

2 sessions

Date; Monday September 5th & 12th
Time; 7pm to 9.30pm

Handbags became increasingly popular during the 19th century. A characteristic purse of the 1890's was the finger purse, probably related to the chatelaine purses of earlier days. These purses were generally made of metal and attached to a ring which fitted over a finger. These tiny purses were generally 2 to 3 inches in size. Using these as an inspiration, Trish designed and made these tiny purses for her nightclubbing daughters - they are large enough for the key and some money, but fit unobtrusively in the hand

Deposits will be refundable only if cancellations are received one week prior to class commencing. We reserve the right to cancel or alter dates if necessary for any reason in which case deposits will be refunded. .

BOOKINGS

Please use the booking form above to enrol in the class or classes of your choice. Bookings must be confirmed with a 25% deposit and final payment must be received 7 days prior to class starting.

Deposits will be refunded only if 7 days notice is given or we are able to fill that place in class.

CANCELLATIONS

We reserve the right to cancel a class for any reason - this will usually be done only if there are circumstances beyond our control. If we need to cancel a class and you have paid a deposit, then we are happy to refund it or transfer the money to another class. We will only ring and advise people of cancellations if a deposit has been received. We understand that various things can crop up, but please plan well before you put your name down for a class.
